We're so grateful to have you as part of our community. Check out our website and follow us on Instagram to stay in touch.

Bring on the New Year.

Congratulations, you've made it to 2024! We hope you had a wonderful holiday season and we are thrilled to be part of your new year. Please enjoy this January edition of the RaYnbow Review, complete with a fresh new look. We've included a 2023 recap, a resource spotlight, upcoming events, and some of our goals for 2024. Also, if you're interested, be sure to check out our Instagram and website for information about joining the council as a team member for this semester!

Our favorite wrapping paper we found this season!

We think the trees on campus would look good with more ornaments ☺☺

Our New Year's Resolutions

- Hear and hold more people's stories ✦*
- Learn more about queer history ✦*
- Interact with the community more ✦*
- Love more ✦*

Read more about our goals on our Instagram @rainbow.collective

Resource Spotlight

Questions From the Closet is a podcast run by Charlie Bird and Ben Schilaty. They discuss questions they are commonly asked as gay members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Each week they are joined by a guest to talk about a question as it relates to LGBTQ+ topics within the context of faith. Find more information and listen along at questionsfromthecloset.com

2023 RaYnbow Recap

In February, we held our first ever consent training!

In April, we welcomed new leadership after our first president graduated!

In August, we designed shirts with our motto "space on my pew."

In June, we held our annual LGBTQ+ at BYU Art Show at JKR Gallery!

The theme of the art show was "The Threads That Bind Us."

In September, we held our annual Back to School Pride!

The Pride March is one of our favorite parts of BTSP every year!

In November, we were grateful for so many things.

And in December, we started our new #holdtheirstories campaign!

Thank you all for an amazing year. Truly, we would not be the RaYnbow Collective without the amazing community of support that we have. Here's to an even better 2024 together!
