Be Our Valentine!

Happy February and happy Black History Month! Please enjoy this February edition of the RaYnbow Review. We've included a January recap, a resource spotlight, upcoming events, and a queer media recommendation. Also, if you're interested, be sure to check out the link below this newsletter to join our social media team!

WINTER TALENT SHOW

Queer Media Recommendation

As a collective, and as young queer people, we love consuming queer media! We hope you'll enjoy these monthly recommendations, consisting of music, film, literature, and more, and featuring queer artists and stories, from us to you!

This month, we were excited to see the new Mean Girls remake in theaters. The new version of this movie was very musical, very queer, and very fun!

"I loved it! Everyone slayed. Reneé Rapp slayed, Auli'i Cravalho slayed, Avantika slayed, Jaquel Spivey slayed. The random dudes kissing in the background during the first song slayed. The overall representation of queer, diverse youth was so amazing and important to see in media, especially in such a cult classic of a film."

Resource Spotlight

The OUT Foundation's mission is to empower the LGBTQ+ students and alumni of Brigham Young University in achieving their intellectual, social, and professional potential. Their services include scholarships, transfer and emergency funds, and honor code ombudspersons. Check them out at www.TheOut.Foundation

January Recap

*Cougar Camp and Couture's

On January 27th, the Cougar Camp and Couture drag group, founded by Collective member Charity Heels, put on their Clown Town drag show. First time host Mister E performed their original song New Year's Eve about learning to let go of people who you love but aren't good for you. Multiple numbers satirized the recent HB257, highlighting the need to protect trans rights and spread love and kindness.

If you missed this show, you can catch them at one of their three shows on March 30. They are looking for volunteers to help them fundraise for The OUT Foundation's fund to assist people in their journey towards gender affirming care. To volunteer and for details about the shows, see @cougarcampandcouture on Instagram.

Last month was a hard one for our community, especially for our trans siblings. We stand steadfastly with the trans community in Utah and worldwide. We see you. We hear you. We love you.

Check out The OUT Foundation's Instagram @theoutfoundation for more information and trans-specific resources.
